OH CANADA

ART SHOW AND PEOPLE'S CHOICE AWARDS

Art submission and contest guidelines

The Galleries @ Brockville Public Library invite submissions of artworks celebrating the 150th anniversary of Canadian confederation.

Artwork submission guidelines

- Submissions will be accepted June 19th to 23rd, 2017
- Subject: Oh Canada – any interpretation of Canadian landscape, culture, or heritage
- All submissions must be titled and labelled – the label could be an index card
- Paintings, photographs, and mixed media works must be able to hang on the wall no larger than 70 cm high
- Sculptures and other art forms must be no larger than 30 cm high x 80 cm long x 30 cm wide
- Submissions will be accepted from all age groups, however there will not be divisions of prize categories
- Artists grant full permission for the Library to use images and photographs of their artworks with no limitations or expiry
- Artists must be from the 1000 Islands area
- entries must be original work submitted by the original artist, one entry per artist
- contest administrators reserve the right to disqualify any entries

Submissions will be exhibited at the Library from early July through to the end of August 2017.

Winners will be determined by people's choice ballot voting. Ballots will be available at the Library from July 2nd to 30th, 2017.

An exhibit album will be available for viewing on Facebook. Winners will be recognized online on the Library website and social media, and advertised in local media.
